

Consolidation of owner in the media has already gone too far, and further relaxing of the rules is undesirable from the viewpoint of the public interest. In this case, the public's right to diversity in information sources is far more important than operational efficiency. Please do not further relax rules to permit large corporations to increase their control of media information sources.